Welcome

Welcome to the 47th annual Come-See-Me Festival. I have had a blast preparing for the 10 days of events and fun! Whether you are a visitor, long-time resident or new to the area, there is something for you.

I am very excited and thankful to be a part of such an amazing community. It is fascinating to think back to the founders of Come-See-Me and their vision to proudly display Rock Hill, it feels great! Ickey Albright and the other founders wanted to showcase the area that many of us know and love...and the rest is history.

It has been a tough year for many businesses and families in the United States, including our community. I hope everyone can find a "moment" of Come-See-Me to warm your heart and put a smile on your face. I also want to express my gratitude to the corporate community as well as the many individuals who made this year's Festival possible through their financial support.

Please use this brochure as a guide for all that the Festival has to offer. This year you will find many of the old favorites, but we also have a few new items on the schedule. I won't mention the "oldies, but goodies", but I want to be sure to highlight several of our new happenings. I am pleased to share that we will help promote a Vietnam Veterans Welcome Home Celebration to provide a much deserved acknowledgement to those who have served and fought for our freedom as Americans. You will also find details regarding the first ever Catawba Pow-Wow. One final official Come-See-Me event that I am happy to announce is Chalk on Main. This event will be a fun-filled evening designed for children and their families who can enjoy sidewalk chalk drawing, and much more in the heart of downtown Rock Hill.

Don't miss out – please take the time to celebrate the 2010 Come-See-Me Festival with me! Whether it's a stroll to Glencairn Garden for lunch, enjoying a concert and admiring the 3,500 azaleas, grabbing a funnel cake at Gourmet Gardens, entering your big, slimy frog in the Mayor's Frog Jump, or an afternoon of fun at the Teddy Bear Tea Party, we hope you enjoy the Festival.

On behalf of the 2010 Board, we look forward to seeing you there... Come-See-Me!

Catherine H. Faircloth
2010 Festival Chairperson

History

The Come-See-Me Festival was first held in 1962 as a community project to invite visitors, relatives and friends to see Rock Hill during its most beautiful season. It started as a weekend event and has expanded to ten days.

The Festival was the idea of its first chairman, C. H. "Ickey" Albright, former Rock Hill Mayor and State Senator, and was nurtured by nationally-acclaimed illustrator Vernon Grant, a Rock Hill resident who created Rice Krispies' celebrated gnomes, "Snap, Crackle and Pop."

The Festival's mascot "Glen the Frog" also was created by Mr. Grant, who designed more than 30 different Glens. A logo representing each new festival is selected yearly.

A central focus of the Festival has always been the historic, award-winning Glencairn Garden, created by Dr. David A. Bigger and given to the City of Rock Hill in 1958. Azaleas, camellias, dogwood, wisteria and a variety of flowers and trees are all on show to celebrate spring.

The Come-See-Me Festival is considered the largest, all-volunteer festival in South Carolina and attracts more than 100,000 participants and visitors every year. The Festival has been ranked in the South's Top 20 Spring Festivals for numerous years and has been featured in Southern Living Magazine twice.
